INTRODUCTION

This year the National Conference Committee 2021-22 has organized its Primer-Cum-Workshop on the importance of research in the legal career on the 27th of September, 2021 Monday.

The main aim of the workshop was to bridge the gap between theory and practice and to provide students with a basic foundation of research skills and the importance of research.

The event was conducted with the support, guidance and motivation by the Faculty Coordinators- Dr. Jayadevan S. Nair, Dr. Gopi Ranganath V, Ms. Pavithra R and also the efforts of the committee members of The National Conference Committee 2021-22.

The invite was sent via mail and it was compulsory for the first year student to attend this Primer-Cum-Workshop, while it was open for all other batches.

The event was conducted between 15:00 to 16:00 hrs on Cisco Webex platform. The technical support and arrangements were provided by Mr. Sahil Ujawane, Convenor, National Conference Committee 2021-22.

The keynote discussant was Dr. Shampa Dev, Professor and Academic Program coordinator at School of Law, CHRIST (Deemed to be University), Bengaluru. She has teaching experience of over 20 years. She obtained her doctorate degree for her thesis on Rights of Children to Free and Compulsory Education. She has completed a funded Research Project on Water Laws. She has published research papers in journals of repute and presented papers in numerous conferences, in the field of Constitutional Law, Election laws, Gender justice, Sports law, Environment law, Human Rights and Jurisprudence. Much of her research work is interdisciplinary. Presently, five s scholars are working under her guidance and two scholars have completed MPhil and Ph.D under her supervision. She has several publications to her credit as well.

WORKSHOP PROCEEDINGS

The masters of the ceremony were Mr. Joel Peter Varghese, Mr. Alan V. Avanesh, and Ms. Sahithi Mithra. Following this, Dr. Jayadevan S Nair, Dean, School of Law, addressed the virtual gathering and congratulated the committee for conducting the primer for the first- year law students.

Ms Anusha Ann Paul, Convenor, National Conference Committee,, gave a brief introduction about the event,delivered the welcome address and later began the primer with a detailed talk about the working and functioning of the committee.

The insightful session commenced with Dr. Shampa Dev emphasizing the importance of research in the legal field. She used simplistic and fundamental examples to get her points across to the audience. Dr. Shampa's valuable insights on the basics of research methodology were appreciated by all the participants of the session. The session was quite interactive and friendly. Dr. Shampa made the session more relatable and interesting for the student body through the means of colorful pictorial representations. Further, she gave insights on a few sources which are easily accessible and helpful for the students in their research. For instance: scopus.com, legalbluebook.com, and ugc.ac.in After the conclusion of the presentation by Dr. Shampa, the Q and A session commenced. The session was moderated by Mr. Sahil Ujawane, Convenor, National Conference Committee. Dr. Shampa, during the Q and A session, encouraged the students to phrase their queries regarding legal research and motivated the student body by answering their questions in the most meaningful and simplistic manner, and assisted in eliminating any doubts the student body had about legal research.

Further closure of the event, the vote of thanks was delivered by Mr. Sahil Ujawane, Convenor,National Conference Committee 2021-22.

"The rules and principles of case law have never been treated as final truths, but as working hypotheses, continually retested in those great laboratories of the law, the courts of justice...
The principles themselves are continually retested; for if the rules derived from a principle do not work well, the principle itself must ultimately be re-examined."
