

Career Prospects

- Students Placed in the last 6 months

Nandini Bhatia (2020-23)
Placed for MA in International Relations
University of Nottingham

Ananya Pooja Desai (2020-23)
Placed at The Takshashila Institute

Saranya Bhakuni (2020-23)
Placed at Social Beat

Sanjana Mathur (2020-23)
Placed at TopHire

Bhavya Gulati (2021-24)
Placed at Accenture

Khushi Kavadia (2021-24)
Placed at Accenture

Jaanvi Ajay Thorat (2021-24)
Placed at Accenture

- Student Achievers in the Past Year

Vratish Vijayakumar
Indian Delegation to Vietnam
(NCC)

Saranya Bhakuni
2nd Position in St Clair
Basketball Tournament

Simran Malik
Qualified for World Championship in Turkey for powerlifting.

Ananya Pooja Desai
Published author with The Wire and LiveWire

Avantika Gundlagutta
Class of 22 of Millennium Fellowship by the UN Academic Impact and Millennium Campus Network.

Vansh Jain
Verbal Mention in Techfest
MUN 2021

S. Maithre
Wrote, shot, directed and edited a film for Rajiv Gandhi Foundation

Natasha Elizabeth Samuel
Classical Piano concert broadcast on Scottish Radio

Divyam Tibrewal
Placed 2nd place in Battle of Bands, Parindey, Mood
Indigo preliminary round.

Ananya Prabhakar
Interviewed Indie Rock and,
Thaikkudam Bridge and article was published on The New Indian Express

Track 1 Environment and Sustainability:

Track 1 offers an understanding of the environment by bringing together perspectives from the sciences, social sciences, arts and humanities disciplines. An Environment and Sustainability student will find career opportunities in multiple fields, including interdisciplinary spaces of work and engagement. Some of the possible career paths for a Track 1 student after graduation are

Sectors (private/public/non-profit)	Roles
Academia	Educator/Facilitator
Education	Researcher/Scientist
Business	Professor
Policy and planning	Geospatial analyst
Law	Environmental
Journalism	manager/planner/consultant
Communications	Nature writer/publisher
Mass media	Environmental journalist
Information systems	Environmental lawyer
Publishing	Environmental influencer/activist
Consultancy	Environmental rights advocate
Health care	Environmental communications specialist
Arts and entertainment	Sustainable business owner/manager
Healthcare	Start-up founder
Development sector

Track 2 Gender and Minority Studies

Track 2 offers training in the interdisciplinary space of gender and minority studies focussing - amongst other things - on gender, class/caste, sexuality in social systems and institutions. A Gender and Minority Studies student will be provided an opportunity to learn, understand and assimilate critical scholarship that will enable them to think, analyse and work ethically, responsibly and justly in an unequal world. Possible career opportunities are listed below

Sectors (private/public/non-profit)	Roles
Academia	Diversity Equity Inclusion (DEI) expert
Education	Journalist
Public policy	Teacher/Professor
Business	Researcher
Marketing and advertising	Social Media Manager/Influencer
Law and advocacy	Human Resources Manager
Communications	Lawyer
Journalism	Writer
Publishing	Artist
Consultancy	Activist/Social worker/Youth Support
Development sector	worker
Activism	Gender transition support worker
Government	Counsellor
Arts and entertainment	Government policy consultant
	Human rights advocate
	Archivist
	Business owner

Track 3 Urban Studies

Track 3 looks into the world of cities and urbanization with an intention of equipping students with an understanding of human settlements, behaviour, inequality and resilience in the face of unprecedented anthropogenic change and transformations. Some of the career paths that students will be able to pursue are given below.

Sector (private/ public/ non-profit)	Roles
Philanthropy	Researcher
Real Estate	Educator
Urban Planning	Teacher
Law	Professor
Architecture and Design	Urban Planner
Business and Finance	Real Estate Analyst
Technology	Transportation analyst
Academia	Activist
Government	Public safety consultant
Performative arts	Architect
	Lawyer
	Business owner
	Geospatial Analyst

Track 4 Healthcare and Wellness

The track offers students a grounding in healthcare and wellness from an interdisciplinary perspective that allows students to gain knowledge and competency to be ready for employment in diverse roles including healthcare centres, pharmaceutical and health insurance companies, fitness industry and so on.

Sectors (private/public/non-profit)	Roles
Policy	Healthcare consultant
Healthcare	Nutritionist/Dietary consultant
Fitness	Wellness expert
Pharmaceutical	Psychologist
Education	Business owner/manager
Psychology	Start-up founders
Business	Influencer
Research and Development
Finance and Economics

Track 5 Industry Innovation and Infrastructure

Sectors (private/public/non-profit)	Roles
Academia	Teacher/ professor
Business	Researcher
Technology and Innovation	Sustainability consultant
Research and Development	Business analyst
Development sector	Data analyst
Finance and Economics	Financial risk manager
Social innovation	Cyber security consultant
Design thinking	Technology risk consultant
	Innovation strategist/ manager
	Business Entrepreneur

Track 6 Peace and Conflict

The track offers critical perspectives of peace and conflict through a diverse set of issues relating to wars and conflict, non-violence, resolution, human rights, justice and sustainability. Students will be equipped to communicate, think, write, analyse and apply their understandings in this area. Job opportunities could include the following

Sectors	Roles
Research/ Academia	Policy analyst
Journalism	Diplomat
Policy	Field officer/negotiator
Legal Studies	Communications Specialist
Communications	Journalist
	Professor
	Researcher
	Educator
	Trauma specialist
	Human rights activist
	Lawyer

Track 7 Communication Studies

The track on Communication Studies will equip students to be efficient communicators with skills in mediated processes in relation to society, culture, language, science communication, politics, conflict resolution, development and social change. Students will find opportunities in various interdisciplinary spaces of work and engagement some of which are listed below.

Sectors (private/public/non-profit)	Roles
Academia Business/Industry Media, Marketing and Advertising Government	Researcher/Professor/Educator Business manager/speech writer/opinion researcher/communications consultant/event planner Marketing specialist Public affairs officer Copywriter/editor News writer/editor Political communicator Translator Digital influencers