

Code of ethics and Anti-plagiarism policies

The Department of Management studies resolves to produce the research works in an ethical way and without having any plagiarism. To promote ethics and to shun plagiarism, the following code of ethics and anti-plagiarism policies are framed and implemented.

1. All the research works of the students, research scholars and faculty members of the department have to be examined through approved plagiarism detection software of the university.
2. All kinds of articles and papers, to be submitted to the journal and periodical, of the students, research scholars and faculty members of the department have to be examined through approved plagiarism detection software of the university.
3. Any book writing and chapter writing work of the students, research scholars and faculty members of the department have to be examined through approved plagiarism detection software of the university.
4. Students, Research scholars and faculty members need to have zero percentage plagiarism in their research work and similarity level will be as per the permissible limit of the University.
5. Students, Research scholars and faculty members need to follow research ethics of the university strictly.