

VISUAL STORYTELLING INTERNSHIP

Climate, Coasts, Oceans, Livelihoods, Landscapes & Biodiversity (COLLAB) along the coast of Thiruvananthapuram.

- Document coastal livelihoods & culture
- Learn about climate change & biodiversity
- Record coastal practices & stories
- Engage with local communities

APPLY BY 31 MARCH 2026

REGISTER HERE

8 APRIL TO 8 JUNE , 2026

TWO-MONTH WORK PLAN

WEEK 1

Orientation & Theme Development

- Introduction to COLLAB themes
- Basics of visual storytelling and ethics
- Field familiarisation visits
- Finalising individual themes/topics

WEEK 2,3 &4

Fieldwork & Documentation

- Intensive field visits- by the students.
- initial interviews
- Shooting stills reels, photo essays & short docu
- Maintaining field notes and reflections

WEEK 5&6

Story Building

- Selection and curation of images
- Writing captions and narrative text
- Mid-review and feedback from mentors

WEEK 7&8

Finalisation & Presentation

- Editing and sequencing
- Preparing final outputs (digital/print format)
- Presentation of work at the Nodal Office

- Interns are expected to arrange their own equipment, accommodation and food during the internship period in Trivandrum.
- The Nodal Office will provide academic and field guidance, mentorship, and access to relevant networks, but will not cover living expenses.
- Certificates will be awarded upon on completion

