SAMBANDH

Concept Note

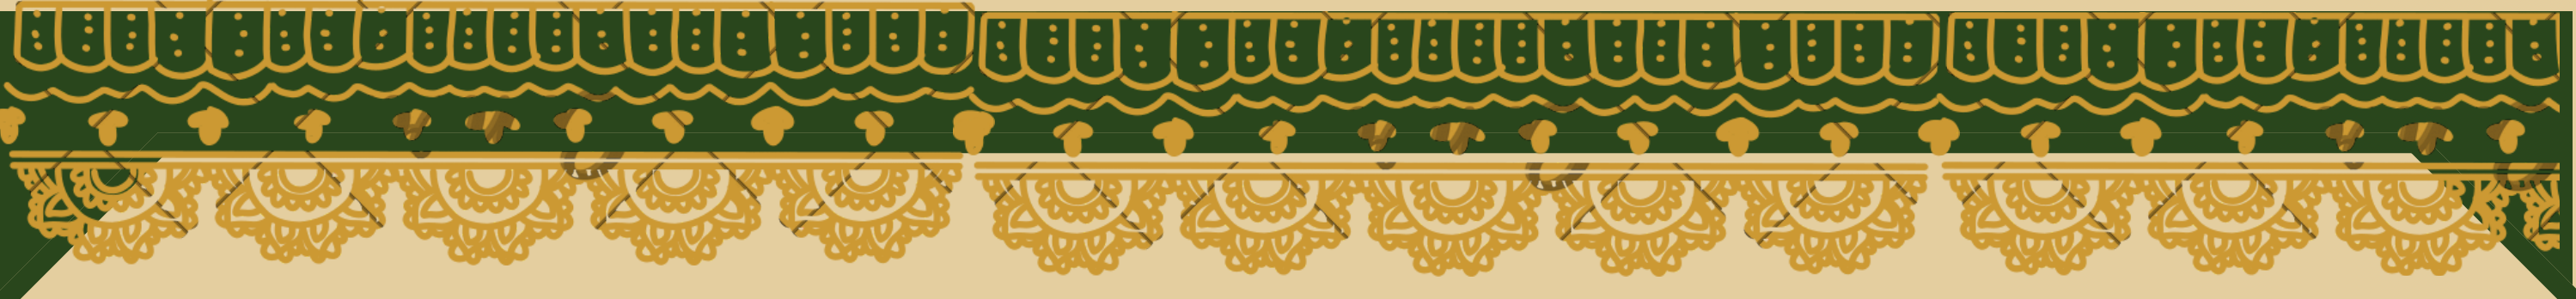

SAMBANDH : The Flagship Fest organised by SOCIUS, The Student Association under the Department Of Sociology at CHRIST University Central Campus, is in every sense of the word an event that fosters "relations" by bringing diverse people together to share their wonder for all social life. Celebrating cultures, identities and richness of the social milieu, SAMBANDH marks itself as a confluent opportunity for knowledge to meet creativity and inspire socially rich and culturally diverse thought in students across disciplines. This year SAMBANDH sets out to create a platform for participation and engagement with the roots and building blocks of our social work through our theme- "Echoes of the Everyday: Folk Traditions and Social Life". Bringing to you all a myriad of fun events and activities along with promising cultural engagements , SAMBANDH brings to you this theme in an enriching and participative light.

FOLKED UP

A Debate on Folk Aesthetics

- Individual participation.
- Participants will be randomly assigned to speak for or against the motion on the day.
- Folk traditions are often seen as simple community practices passed down through generations. However, contemporary scholarship shows that folk aesthetics are constantly shaped and reshaped by institutions such as museums, religious movements, and political ideologies.
- This debate explores how power, space, and representation influence the way folk traditions are seen, performed, and preserved today.
- Participants will critically examine whether preservation protects culture or transforms it, how nationalism and reform movements reshape visual and performative traditions, and whether visibility truly leads to empowerment.
