A report on Children's day Carnival by CSA

Event: Children's day celebration, Carnival

Date: Saturday, 18 November 2017

Time: 2pm- 3.30 pm

As a part of the Children's day celebrations conducted by CSA, Christ University, the Department of Languages put up an exhibition and conducted various activities for school children from Std. 5 to 8. There were two stalls for Kannada and Tamil speaking children to test their linguistic abilities and make them aware of the greatness and importance of Kannada and Tamil. Kannada students Shashank.G, Kishore K G and Chandan.S from 4 semester B.com represented as volunteers for the Kannada stall. The volunteers conducted many activities like Quiz in Kannada, identifying great personalities from various Kannada cultural fields and well known historical and tourist places of Karnataka on the map of Karnataka. The children identified very quickly and explained the importance of these places. Another activity conducted was tongue twister where the children had to pronounce the given words without pause. Out of 100 Kannada school children, 50 of them won the events. The CSA gave the children chocolates as token of appreciation.

Tamil language volunteers Priyanka.G, Nithesh Krishna V and Dharani Dharan from 2 and 4 semester B.Com classes conducted many activities in Tamil for Tamil knowing children. The photos of very important personalities of Tamil origin like Dr. A P J Abdul Kalam, A R Rahman, and Vishwanathan Anand etc. were shown to the children. The children identified and explained their contributions to the Tamil Language, Literature and Culture. Tamil volunteers also conducted tongue twister activity and correct pronunciation of Tamil words. The children enjoyed the activities and the winners were appreciated by giving chocolates.

The activities gave a deep sense of satisfaction to the volunteers as the school children exhibited their linguistic abilities, gained new knowledge and enjoyed the whole event.

In-Bloom (Bangalore Central Campus)

In-Bloom is a national-level cultural festival organized annually by Christ University. It features stage, art, literary, and theatre events. In-Bloom aims to provide a platform for students from institutions across the country to channelize their creativity, sharpen their minds, and exhibit their talents within an atmosphere of amity and celebration.

The fest started from 31 January 2018 and ended on 3 February 2018 with a musical concert by Masala Coffee. The theme for this year was ARABIAN NIGHTS. This year we had the greatest number of participation from outside. For In bloom inauguration, five deaneries participated for the procession i.e. BGR campus, Department of Management Studies, Kengeri campus, Department of Professional studies and Department of Commerce.

Swaranjali is a musical event conducted by the department of Performing arts wherein students with passion towards Indian music, come together on one platform for a one-hour performance. As every year, this year too Swaranjali turned out to be a pleasing musical treat to the audience.

Swaranjali was conducted on Wednesday, 27th of November 2017 in the KE auditorium of fourth Block. The event was graced by the presence of Father Lijo. It was a one hour performance on Indian music by around 29 students from the department of Performing Arts. The time duration of the programme took place from 12 in the afternoon to, during the activity hour. After welcoming of the chief guest by the Mc's Mamatha and Lakshmi of the class 6PEP, the programme started with the theme song consisting parts of various compositions in different ragas. Compositions such as Hamsadhwani rasavahini, Vatapi Ganapthim, Swagatham Krishna, Pranathosmi guruvayur, Theereada Vilayattu pillai were sung alternatively with swarams of the ragas of the compositions. This was followed by harmony and was concluded with Dhanshree Thillana. Later English notes Muthiah Bhagavathar was sung, it was followed by two patriotic songs, Sau Ragini a (Hindi composition) and Chiranthana,( a Kannada composition respectively).The programme was concluded by a Tamil folk song.

This programme wouldn't have been a success without the support of Music teachers from the Department of Performing Arts, Dr.Muthulaskmi, Mr.Sunil Kumar and Dr.B.E.Kamala Kumar respectively. These teachers also composed and compiled songs for the programme. The melodious singing of the students was accompanied by Prof. Sunilkumar (Performing Arts) on Mridangam, Vidwan S V Bhakar on Flute and Vidwan S Lokesha on keyboard. The sound management was done by Rajan Sir. The musicians were felicitated by Father Lijo and this was followed by Father's speech. With the help of all the above people and the student participation the programme was indeed a successful one.

Saint Tyagaraja is one of the most celebrated and revered composers in the field of Carnatic music. He was an ardent devotee of lord Rama and composed several Krithis in praise of him and other gods. To offer our respect and express our gratitude to this great composer, we organise an event, 'Tyagaraja Mahotsav' every year celebrating this composer par excellence. This year, it was held on the 9 February from 3PM onwards in the Main Auditorium. The students of the department of performing arts and also from the other departments and a few staff members, under the guidance of the music staff of the department Dr Muthulakshmi G, Sunil Kumar M P and Dr Kamala Kumar set up a show where a few well known compositions of the composer was presented.

The event began with a pancharatna Kriti, 'Jagadanandakaraka' in the raga Nattai. This was followed by 'Dasharathanandana' in the raga Asaveri. Succeeding this, 'Daya Rani' a composition in the raga Mohana was sung by the team. The group was accompanied on the violin by Vidwan Shantakumar on violin, Vidwan Rakesh on flute and Vidwan Shashishankar on the mridangam. The event continued with another one of the five famous pancharatna krithis, 'Jagadanandakaraka' in the raga Sri. Following this, a composition in the raga Kalyanavasantha, 'Nada loludai' was sung. Ending the event on a high note, we signed off with a zealous rendition of the utsava sapradaya krithi, 'Nagumomu Galavani'.

We would like to thank Father Lijo for his gracious presence throughout, ensuring the success of the event. Also, we would like to thank the HOD of the department of performing arts, Prabin Villareesh to have supported, encouraged and guided us throughout the proceedings of the event.
