

A REPORT ON WINGS ON WORDS

The Student Council, Kengeri Campus

CHRIST (Deemed to be University), Bangalore

Poetry competitions are an important part of the university experience, as they provide students with an opportunity to express themselves and their creativity in a unique and meaningful way. Hosted by the Student Council, Kengeri Campus, these competitions are a great way for students to come together and share their work with their peers and is a great way to foster a sense of community among students. By coming together to share their work, students can learn from each other and gain a better understanding of the different perspectives and experiences of their peers. This can help in creating a more inclusive and supportive environment on campus.

Wings on Words is a poetry competition conducted by the Social Media Committee of the Student Council which was met with great enthusiasm from the students of Christ University as they got an opportunity to exhibit their talent and confidence. The competition was based on the themes of 'Homesickness' and 'The smell that brings back memories'. The 10 students shortlisted for their poems had an opportunity to recite their poem in the Open Auditorium on March 9, 2023.

The competition received a total of 25 entries, wherein the students came up with different poems pertaining to the themes with unique ideas and zeal. They enjoyed the perfection of expression, thoughts, emotions, rhythm and music of words. The competition was a great success, with many students submitting their work. The judge, Dr. Bhavani Sanjeeviraja is an esteemed professor from the Department of English and Cultural Studies, Bangalore Central Campus. The poems were judged on their creativity, originality, tonal quality and poetic supremacy.

The stage was set for the recital, which was managed by the Social Media Committee in collaboration with the Events Committee. As the students took to the stage, they began to narrate their poems with a passion and enthusiasm that was palpable. The audience was captivated by the stories and emotions that were expressed through the words of the students. The top 3 winners were announced after the conclusion of the recital of all the poems. The competition was a great success, and it was a wonderful opportunity for the students to express their creativity and explore the themes of 'Homesickness' and 'The smell that brings back memories' and was a true testament to the talent and creativity of the students who participated.
