Guest Lecture on the Book - “Trumped: Emerging Powers in a Post-American World”

Date: Monday, 17 February 2020

Venue: Panel Room, Block 2

Faculty Coordinator: Dr Kailash Koushik

The Department of Media Studies in collaboration with the Department of International Studies and History, hosted Dr Sreeram Chaulia, Professor and Dean at the Jindal School of International Affairs, O.P. Jindal Global University, in Sonipat. Dr Chaulia delivered a lecture on his latest book titled Trumped: Emerging Powers in a Post-American World. Questioning the popular assumption that China will take over as the global hegemon after the fall of the United States of America, Dr Chaulia argued that the current diminished global order, provides opportunities for countries such as India, Turkey, Brazil and Nigeria. He also took time to answer the student's queries. A copy of the book was presented by the author to the CHRIST (Deemed to be University) library. Dr N Manoharan, Associate Professor, Department of International Studies and History, Prof. r Padmakumar, Head of Department, Media Studies, and Prof. Joel M Jacob, Assistant professor, Department of Media Studies, were also present at the lecture.
