Today, to mark the 73rd Independence Day of India, we had Independence Day celebrations in School of Business Studies and Social Sciences, CHRIST (Deemed to be University) The NCC cadets of 2/9 Coy, BGR Campus reported for the event at 6.45 am. There were a total of 22 cadets and everyone was entrusted with some responsibilities and duties. The final rehearsal was conducted at 7.30 am.

To mark this glorious occasion we had with us the entire family of Christ BGR campus -the Director, Krithika Ma'am, Robert sir, Sindhu ma'am, Baby sir, security staffs, technical, maintenance, non-teaching staff, ICH, Students and cadets.

With pride in our souls, fire in our hearts and with immense happiness which ignited our patriotism, we hoisted the flag at 8.00 am followed by national anthem.

To acknowledge this remarkable event we had the guest of honour Dr. Father Biju. K. Chacko (Director of School of Business Studies and Social Sciences, CHRIST(Deemed to be University) who is also a great orator addressed the gathering was escorted by four pilots. The crowd applauded to his words when he said, " We need to focus on being more humane than just being human". He shared with us the fact that all of us are very fortunate to inherit the legacy of great Indian personalities and freedom fighters. He also emphasised on duty and respect towards religion, culture, the nation and giving us some insights on how we can contribute towards nation building by being selfless

This was followed by rewarding the winners of essay writing competition on "Significance of Gandhian Ideologies in the contemporary India" in the background of 73rd Independence Day.

The event came to an end with a vote of thanks followed by distribution of sweets. We also had a photo session with the Christ BGR family along with Father Biju to inscribe these glimpses in the history of our campus. Later, everyone dispersed to the mess for breakfast.

The Work allotment for the event are as follows

- 1) Pilots (4) – Akanksha M Parashar
Smriti Bhatt
Anakha Hari
