Dr P Madhusoodanan Nair

Dr PM Nair, IPS, Former DGP NDRF, and former TISS Chair Professor, TISS Mumbai is a renowned International Anti Trafficking Expert in the Indian subcontinent. With his MA, LLB and PhD in Sociology, he worked with ICSSR before joining IPS. During the 35 years in IPS, he served in the field in Bihar for 15 years and CBI for 10 years. Cases investigated by him include Rajiv Gandhi assassination, BOFORS case, ISRO Espionage, International Arms Drop at Purulia, Sanjay Ghose abduction, Human Rights Violations, and International human trafficking cases.

He has personally rescued and facilitated rescue of more than 50,000 victims. He has personally trained more than 60,000 stakeholders, including police, Judges, Prosecutors, academics, activists, care givers and NGOs, both nationally and internationally.

While serving UNODC, he started the first 9 AHTUs in 9 Districts in India during 2007, which has been replicated by Govt in 2020 to all 741 Districts in India. He started the system of Anti-Human Trafficking Nodal Officers in the States in India during 2003. He has authored 18 books on different aspects of addressing human trafficking.

It was Dr Nair who drafted the Bill on Human Trafficking in 2016, as desired by the Union Minister. With the collaboration of colleges and NGOs across India, he has launched AHT Clubs (Anti-Human Trafficking Clubs), a novel initiative to provide a platform for Students to combat Human Trafficking. In order to address the issues at the grassroots, especially during the post-Covid time, he set up PAHT (Panchayats Against Human Trafficking) and is making a quiet revolution in working with the masses in preventing human slavery.

Dr Kiran Bedi in the Foreword to the latest book on Investigating sex trafficking authored by PM Nair has rightly acknowledged that PM Nair is the Father of the Anti Human Trafficking Movement in India
