Augustine Paul

Augustine Paul is a well-known music educator and conductor in Chennai. He holds a Licentiate Diploma in Music from Trinity College, London, and a Master's in English Literature.

He is the Music Director of the 128 years old Madras Musical Association Choir. Augustine is the founder-leader of the Octet Cantabile, a mixed double quartet, which has been performing gospel concerts for 27 years.

He also formed "Chromatics" an ensemble of qualified singers, who do concerts of opera arias and art songs. He has composed a few orchestral pieces and arranged many choral works.

He teaches and presents students for the TCL and ABRSM exams. He is the recipient of the Best Music Teacher prize (by the Trinity College of Music, Chennai chapter), for the last few years. He has done concert tours of the U.S, UK, Malaysia, Singapore, and many countries in the Gulf with the Octet Cantabile.

Augustine has performed with and conducted the MMA choir in concerts in London, Sydney, Rome, Vienna and Colombo where the MMA choir won gold and silver diplomas under his baton in the Asia Pacific Choir Games, in October 2017.

He has worked extensively in the studios with great music directors like Ilayaraja and A R Rahman and has done choral backing in numerous albums with the Octet. He has done choral music workshops across the country and has judged many music competitions.
