

Department of Sociology and Social work

One Day basic Training program on Human Rights

Department of Sociology and Social Work in collaboration with National Human Rights Commission, New Delhi organized One day training program on Human Rights on 11 December 2017 at Seminar Hall, Block II. The focus of the training programme was to sensitize students and Faculty members on human rights issues. The technical sessions focused on Introduction to Human Rights, Human Rights Institutions in India, Rights of Women and Children and Rights of other vulnerable groups.

The training program was inaugurated by Dr. John Joseph Kennedy, Dean of Humanities and Social sciences, followed by the felicitations by Dr. Vageshwari S.P, Professor of International Studies and History and Dr. Hemalatha, Associate Professor, Department of Social work

“Introduction to Human Rights” was the first session of the training program by Prof, George Kutty Jose, Associate Professor & Convener-Human Rights Committee, School of Law, CHRIST (Deemed to be University). Ms. Arlene Manoharan, Centre Co-ordinator-Centre for Child and the Law, Programme Co-ordinator-Juvenile Justice, National Law School of India University, Bengaluru, took a session on “Human Rights Institutions in India”. “Rights of Women and Children” were taken by Dr. Jayanthi Bai H.L, Assistant Professor, School of Law, CHRIST (Deemed to be University) and Mr.Vasudeva Sharma, Executive Director, Child Rights Trust was the resource person for the session on “Rights of other vulnerable groups”.

Students and Faculty members of Sociology and social work, and Media studies were the participants of the training program.