Smita Tharoor

Smita Tharoor is the founder of Tharoor Associates and the co-founder of Culturelytics. She is the recipient of the “Global Diversity Leadership” Award at the 2017 World HRD Congress.

Smita was born in Bombay and lived in Calcutta, Delhi and Rajasthan but comes from rural Kerala. She currently lives in London. Experiencing urban vs rural and living in secular India taught her the value of tolerance and the appreciation of accepting differences.

Smita is a motivational keynote speaker, consultant, trainer, coach and mentor speaking about our unconscious bias and how it influences us. She has spoken around the world from Penang to Philadelphia, Bangalore to London. Smita is empowering and inspiring. She is seen as a thought-leader who connects with an audience on a personal level.

She is a visiting Professor at the University of Arts London and Jindal University teaching Behavioural Sciences. Smita has a podcast series on the Unconscious Bias interviewing people around the world to share their stories of unconscious bias. Listen here.

She is passionate about celebrating diversity and inclusion. Her experience working in the UK, USA, Europe and India gives her a unique advantage in understanding the expectations and needs of different cultures.
