| Summary of the Activity | ‘Sangam’, the flagship event of the Department of International Studies, Political Science and History had 8 events in total and one of them includes ‘The Standoff’ organised by the Film Club of Vrittanta, which is the student association of the department. The event had two different rounds: The first round is called "Their Story" which involves the narration of any incident or event witnessed by the contestant which they feel that they can turn into a comical set. The second round is called "Just everyday things". For this round, the qualifiers from the first day will be given topics from everyday life which they will be required to turn into a stand-up set and perform on the second day of the event. The event began with introductory remarks by the event host Veronica explaining the rules to the audience and participants and then sets performed by different participants on several topics like Instagram handles, stomach ache, collecting a book from the senior, dogs and online classes. The media team covered the entire event with volunteers handling the audience and maintaining the smooth flow of the event and in between the organising committee serving the refreshments on both the |

Her set represented her story of ‘coming out’ as Gay. This shows how a comedic event or sets like these could be a medium to explain to the larger audience about the struggle of different sections of the society. Although comedy is subjective but a general interpretation of the jokes could enlighten the public in a way that stays with them through a form of entertainment. Winners: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 1st position- Surya K L • 2nd position- Priyanka Sri S • 3rd position- M Harshavardhan Organising Committee Members/ Film Club Heads: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Veronica Khongwir • Khushi Bajoria |
