

School of Business Sciences and Social Sciences

Date: 5th September, 2019 Time: 11:30 am to 1:20 pm Venue: Main Auditorium

Teachers Day celebration was held from 11:30 am to 1:20 pm in the main auditorium in CHRIST (deemed to be university), school of business studies and social sciences on 5th September, 2019.

The program started with welcome address by Dr. Fr. Biju KC, the campus director. A dance performance was done by team Laasya. A musical performance was delivered by team Pranyam. All teachers were asked to download Kahoot Quiz, which was played later. It was conducted by Vishal Parwani and Vritti Mishra. Questions were asked based on the theme "How well you know your colleagues".

Professor who gained the most number of correct answers and in the least amount of time, was declared the winner. After the quiz, awards were distributed by Alan. Each teacher received a title, and a sache having the title on it. All teachers also received a mug which was customised with their names on it and the message of happy teacher's day on it. A spoon was also provided.

Dr. Jyoti Kumar, the dean then shared a few words on the auspicious occasion of teacher's day. A speech to thank teachers was delivered by Jhala Shubhanginidevi, and the vote of thanks by Anjana Nambiar. Refreshments were provided to all teachers after the program ended.