

School of Law

September 05, 2019

The Teachers' Day celebration for the academic year 2019-20 was held from 3:45 pm to 5:30 pm at the Campus view in CHRIST (Deemed to be University) on 9th September, 2019. The emcee was done by Rajath and Gayathri Balasubramanian, DSC members. The program began with the lighting of the lamp by the dignitaries of the day accompanied by an invocation song by Sahana and Pooja. Following this, Keya Rebello, University Student Council member delivered the welcome address. A fifteen-minute-long video was shot by the students of Deanery Student Council, which was a compilation of teachers' day greetings from all the classes in School of Law, including few alumni.

The video also included Mr. Ashwin, Mr. Stalin and Ms. Sunayana who shared their journey from student life to teacher life. The teachers were certainly overwhelmed after watching the video. An Indian style dance performance was put up with the help of the cultural committee. The graceful movements of the girls were a treat to the eyes. A fun game called Tambola was organised for the teachers. The event was conducted by Siri Prasad and Nandita Karunakaran. All the teachers played with great enthusiasm and the set of winners were rewarded with gifts.

Dr. Abdur Munir Roaf from Western Cape University who was on his visit to School of Law, was invited to share a few words with the audience. He appreciated and praised the DSC for organising such an event and shared some of his memorable experiences. The cultural committee gave another western dance performance. The energetic dance brought everyone on their toes. It was a refreshing performance for around two minutes.

The music team of the cultural committee entertained the audience with a beautiful collection of Bollywood songs. Dr. Sunita, Professor from the LLM followed by Prof. George K Jose respectively shared a view words about their initial stages of career and how they value the noble profession. Dr. Fr. Benny Thomas, Director, School of Law was invited to address the gathering followed by which Pahul Sond, University student council member delivered the vote of thanks.

All the teachers and DSC members present assembled for a group photo session after which everyone was provided with refreshment. The event on the whole was well organised and was a grand success.
