

UG PROGRAMMES KANNADA

Course description

Kannada is offered as a Second language for I & II-year BA/B.Sc /B. Com/ BBA Degree programme (Semester Scheme). The courses are for 100 marks and three credits. Select ancient Kannada Literature, Vachanas and Keerthanas of the Medieval & Modern Kannada Literature are introduced in the syllabus. This will enrich the poetic skills of the students. Language skills are enhanced by giving focus on Grammar and Comprehension. The Official Correspondence for II year B.com students is an additional quotient to the existing model to cater to business purposes

Course Objective

The department offers value based texts for I & II degree undergraduate programme to orient the students to articulate language, literature and culture in a conceptual mode where in ideas, debates and ideological affiliations are understood and inferred in an analytical manner. Testing through digital learning enhances the technical capability of the student in Kannada.

Learning Outcome

- Exposure to Kannada Literary forms
- Sharpening of written and oral communication skills
- Capability in creating subject specific articles in Kannada in a digital space

HINDI

Course description

Hindi is offered as second language for first year BA/BSc/B. Com/B. Com(H), F&A, IF/BBA and second year BA/BSc/B.Com. The department focuses on developing critical, analytical and communicative skills of students through various programmes namely Guest lectures, Translation workshop, Hindi Theatre performances, Bhasha Samvad, Jagruthi (Intra- class literary competitions), Student poets meet, Bhasha Utsav, Role play, Certificate programme, Paper presentations, Mock media Interviews, CIA through Digital learning(Hindi Wikipedia) and other electronic media. Association with academic bodies and literary - cultural organizations adds value to the programme and it gives contemporary approach to teaching, learning and research in Hindi.

Course Objective

The primary objective of offering Hindi as a language at undergraduate level is to enable the students to know about the richness of the language and its literary traditions. Hindi, as our national language plays an important role in developing national integrity, sense of pride and fundamental unity.

Learning Outcome

- Exposure to Hindi Literary and cultural art forms like poetry, short stories, play, yakshagana, kathakali etc.
- Sharpening of written and oral communication skills.
- Film appreciation helps them to improve their writing and analytical skills and know more about the thematic and technical aspects of Cinema.
- Capability in creating subject specific articles in Hindi in a digital space.
- Through translation, students can understand different languages, literatures and cultures of India.
- By learning about the tradition of Indian painting and legendary painters of India, students get to know about the richness and culture of the Indian paintings.
- Creative writing sharpens their thinking, analytical and writing skills.
- Exposure to digital learning through article creation in Hindi Wikipedia.

SANSKRIT

Course description

Sanskrit is offered as a Second language for I & II year BA/B.Sc/B.Com/BBA Degree programme under the Semester Scheme . Students will write the exam for hundred marks and get three credits. The first semester BA/B.Sc and B.Com /BBA students will study poetry from selected shlokas, second semester students will study prose, third semester students will study Champu kavya and fourth semester students will study drama based on epics and social issues.

Course Objective

The Department provides a platform for reading and understanding of original texts to strengthen the knowledge about Indian culture. To create an atmosphere of traditional learning and mutual support.

Learning Outcome

- Students will have exposure to Ancient Sanskrit literary texts.
- The mind will be sharpened with moral learning.
- Students will know the wisdom of Scriptures.
- Students will be able to pick up the right pronunciation along with the root meaning of the languages.

TAMIL

Course Description - The curriculum of the Tamil offered as II language to the I BA / BSc / B Com, B Com (H), BBA and II BA / BSc / B Com programmes. The course, taking into account the language proficiency, literary knowledge and cultural awareness of the students, exposes them to various strands of those areas with the best of selections made from the respective periods.

Course Objective – The Course aims at giving the finest literary and cultural experience to hone their aesthetic sensibilities apart from improving their critical and analytical skills. It also introduces them the rich cultural heritage of Karnataka, through translations, to enable them to have a PanIndian outlook

Course Learning Outcome – With a considerable level of understanding of language, literature and culture acquired till the higher secondary level, the course enables them to widen their perspectives.

- By the end of the course, students will have an enhanced level of understanding of their language, literature and culture which will include the greatness of the past, voice of the marginalized and the power of other cultural forms like music, theatre, films and painting.

FRENCH

Course Description - The curriculum of the French course is offered as II language in the I BA / BSc / B Com, B Com (H), BBA and II BA / BSc / B Com programmes. The course caters to basic language skills and corresponds to A1 & A2 levels in the six-level scale of competence laid down in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Course Objective – The Course is designed to suit the present-day requirements where the emphasis is more on the Oral communication. Beginning at an intermediate level, the method progresses to an advanced level through day to day situations with its dialogues where the stress is on the spoken word. The part on French civilization offers one a useful insight on life and living in France.

Course Learning Outcome – Enhancement of linguistic competencies and sharpening of written and oral communicative skills through the use of ICT and other pedagogy. By the end of the course, students would be able -

- to express themselves in a basic manner
- to understand / use familiar and commonly used expressions and simple sentences
- to introduce themselves and others as well as ask others, questions about themselves
- to engage in conversations dealing with day to day situations
- to write simple dialogues /compositions /informal & formal letters / email etc

FRENCH FOR BCA

Course Description - The curriculum of the French course offered as an Elective in the 3 Semester or 5 & 6 Semester BCA. The course caters to basic language skills and corresponds to A1 level in the six-level scale of competence laid down in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Course Objective – The Course is designed to suit the present-day requirements where the emphasis is more on the Oral communication. Beginning at a Debutant level, the method progresses to an intermediate level through day to day situations with its dialogues where the stress is on the spoken word. The part on French civilization offers one a useful insight on life and living in France.

Course Learning Outcome – Enabling linguistic competencies at a Beginner level and sharpening of written and communicative skills through the usage of ICT and other pedagogy. By the end of the course, students would be able -

- to express themselves in a basic manner
- to understand / use familiar and commonly used expressions and simple sentences
- to introduce themselves and others as well as ask others, questions about themselves - to engage in conversations dealing with day to day situations

FRENCH FOR BHM

Course Description - The curriculum of the French course offered as a language for II BHM gives students of Hotel Management an opportunity to master the different aspects needed to interact with French clients in India. The functional language used is meant to sharpen oral skills. The cultural inputs allow one to have a better understanding of the French people and their culture

Course Objective – This course allows the students to acquire communicative skills, the mastery of which is absolutely essential for minimal exchanges in India between a professional in a specific field and a French speaking client. The spiral progression in the prescribed method allows the gradual mastery of language skills through a series of exercises. Additional grammatical text will complement the program with its grammar components.

Course Learning Outcome – Enabling linguistic competencies at a Beginner level and sharpening of written and communicative skills with various situations in the industry for e.g.: car rentals, bar, restaurant, shopping etc through the usage of ICT and other pedagogy.

By the end of the course, students would be able - - to express themselves in a basic manner

- to engage in simple conversations
- to understand /use culinary terms / beverages / fruits /vegetables
- to interact with international clientele at the front office
- to follow / write simple recipes