Overview

Initially, we received information about the session from Jubeesh sir on 13th August (Friday), so there was a team meeting held on 14th August (Saturday), where everyone was briefed about the same. We started working on the ActionBound application right after that.

We got the date of the event confirmed by Jubeesh sir on 17th August (Tuesday). A general meeting was held with Jubeesh sir and the team to plan the event on 18th August(Wednesday) from 3 to 4 PM. Post this meeting, the team started to work on the posters for the event (Elizabeth & Aabha), set up the rules, and streamlined the ActionBound Quiz.

On the day of the event (19th August – Thursday), there was a small meeting at 1:00 PM to summarize the event plan and clear any doubt the volunteers had.

During the event, the seven volunteers were allotted 5-6 Teams each, which they had to brief about the rules before the QR code could be sent. The Volunteers finished the same by 4:50 PM due to miscommunication from the Sciences and Humanities side. The event went smoothly with all the minor doubts being cleared in the WhatsApp group created with all team leaders in it.

At the end of the event, the students and some mentors were also delighted with the outcome of the event, as they mentioned it was one of the liveliest events of the EEP.
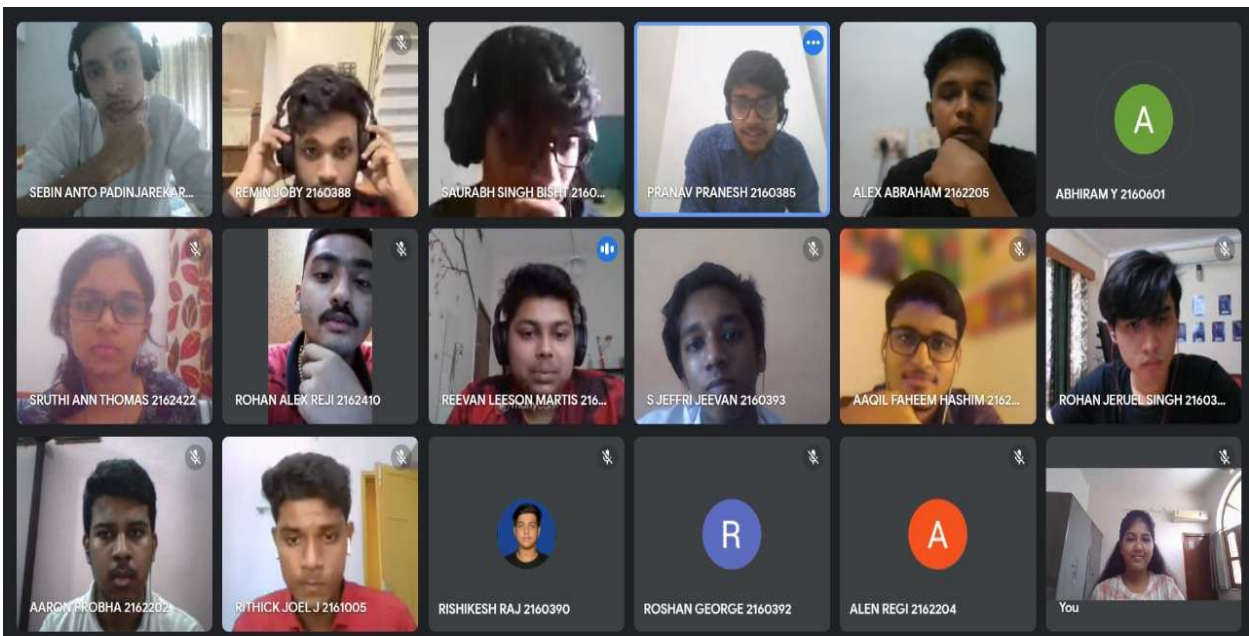

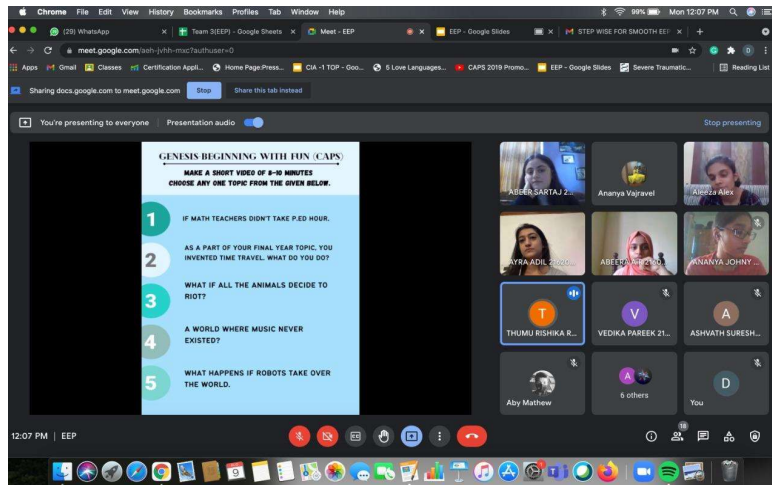

Problems/Issues Faced

- The Mentors had left the meetings, which led to the volunteers not being able to enter them, which caused the initial phase to take longer than expected.
- Many groups had issues with Audio Clips being played even though steps were taken to inform them how to use them.

Learnings

- Have Better Coordination with the Mentor team for future EEP Events.
- For Audio Clips, we might have to find a workaround as many people cannot follow the steps mentioned in the rules.

DATE OF EVENT: 10 November, 2021

NAME OF EVENT: The Sphinx Trial

EVENT REPORT

The event was a treasure hunt organized by the CG/QC wing as a way for students (especially those who had not been to campus before) to get to know their campus. Participants were shared a PDF containing clues in the form of riddles to reach 9 spots in campus. Participants could be present in teams of up to five, and had to answer riddles written by the CG/QC team to reach certain spots in campus. This had to be done in the order in which the riddles were presented. One or two CAPS volunteers were present in each of the locations to guide the teams and tell them that it is the correct spot. The participants then took pictures on that location; each team member had to be present for the picture to be taken. Winners were determined on the basis of who visited all the place first. Prizes were given to the first, second, and third teams
