Descriptive Report

The meeting of the Kannada Association representatives began with a prayer by Kumari Varnika. Dr. Shivanand Tavali, Kannada professor, extended a warm welcome to the gathering. Dr. Rathi M. T., Kannada professor and coordinator of the Kannada Association, explained the purpose of the meeting. She discussed the events planned for the entire year by the association, the declining commitment among representatives, and emphasized how, with everyone's cooperation, the programs should be conducted professionally, with dedication and concern.

The aluminises of the same institution and currently serving as the Student Welfare Officer, Mr Poornananda Bhaskar and Ananth Padmanabha, who is employed in the Accounts Department, shared their experiences. They spoke about their student life, how the Kannada Association played a major role in shaping their values, how they used to organize Kannada Association programs during their student days, and how those experiences contributed to their personal growth and current positions.

Rev. Father Varghese K. J., the institution's Chief Financial Officer, who presided over the meeting, advised students to reduce their interest in mobile phones and instead devote that time to writing Kannada literature. He also urged them to take initiatives to uplift the underprivileged in their local communities. He instructed each representative of the Kannada Association to write a poem or a short story and attend the next meeting on August 31st at the same venue to submit it to Madam Rathi. He added that these activities themselves would serve as their celebration of Kannada Rajyotsava.

A total of 70 student representatives participated in the meeting. The session concluded at 5:30 PM with a vote of thanks from Dr. Shivanand Tavali.
