1. Introduction

On 30 September 2024, the Centre for Research at CHRIST (Deemed to be University), Bangalore organized a supervisor orientation for the supervisors of the June 2024 batch at the Discussion Room, 2nd Floor, A-Block. The orientation aimed to provide an in-depth understanding to the supervisor of their roles and duties, towards the scholar and the PhD journey.

The session began with a silent prayer, setting a reflective tone for the day's activities. Dr. Shoney Sebastian, Director Centre for Research at CHRIST (Deemed to be University) lead the session, sharing the process of the PhD, and informing the supervisors about their roles and duties, and emphasizing the importance of fulfilling their duties.

2. Objectives

The workshop was designed with three primary objectives in mind:

1. Orienting the new supervisors with the process and timeline of Phd

2. Making the supervisors acquainted with their roles and responsibilities

3. Making the supervisors acquainted with the rules and regulations to proceed with the PhD.

3. Agenda

The session started with the introduction to the data of scholars admitted to the PhD June 2024 Cohort batch, Dr. Shoney Sebastian gave insights into the formal templates and formats of the submission of documents in KP, the supervisors were made familiar with the rules and procedures for the completion of PhD. The session revolved around the lifecycle of PhD, the coursework, submission and criteria of failure in coursework. The supervisors were also informed about Honorarium, name in the scholars publication and letting the scholars attend

Conferences and Workshops. The supervisors informed about the procedures of De-registration, attending grievances, workload and OOD for data collection etc.

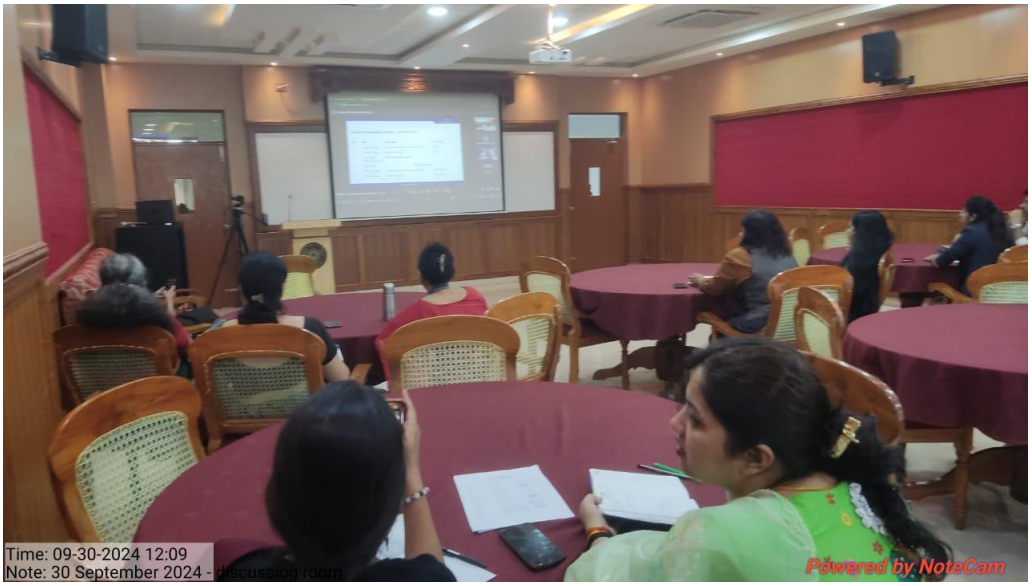

Supervisors left the session with several key insights:

1. Insights into rules and regulations for the PhD degree.
2. Insight into their roles and duties as a supervisor.
3. Insight into the importance of their role.
4. Insights into exceptional situations as well.

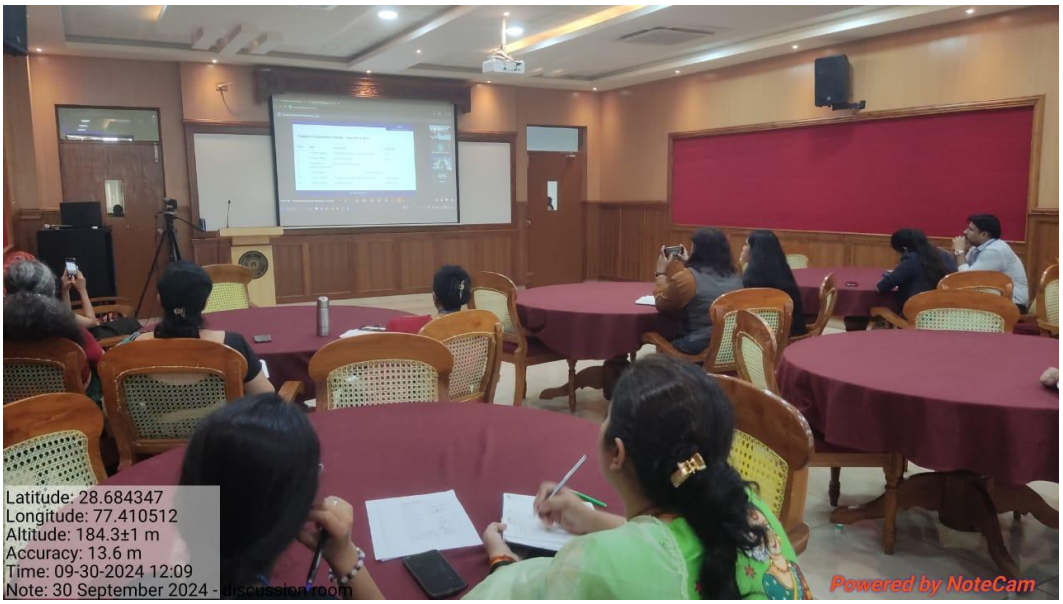

4. Conclusion

The session on supervisor orientation was very beneficial for the supervisor. It achieved its objectives by providing supervisors with essential knowledge that are critical for the role of supervisor. The Question and Answer session helped the supervisors clear their doubts and get more clarification. The workshop ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. Shoney Sebastian.
