Synopsis of the Activity

	1.Welcome and Introduction The programme started with Dr. Vikalp welcoming the Guest, Faculty and scholars present. Following this he Introduced the resource person Dr Vikesh to the audience by enumerating his academic and professional credentials. Dr. Riya Baby presented a sapling to the guest as a token of our gratitude.

Highlights of the Programme	2. Address by Dr. Vikesh Ram Tripathi Dr. Tripathi, an esteemed professor and researcher, shared his extensive knowledge and practical insights on the subject, aiming to equip participants with effective strategies and techniques to produce high-quality literature reviews. Dr. Tripathi initiated the session by emphasizing the critical role of literature reviews in academic research, highlighting their importance in synthesizing existing knowledge, identifying research gaps, and framing new research questions. He pointed out that a well-crafted literature review not only strengthens the foundation of a research study but also adds value to the academic community. Dr. Tripathi structured the workshop into several interactive sessions, each focusing on different aspects of literature review writing. Dr. Tripathi underscored the importance of choosing credible and high-quality sources. He introduced participants to various databases and search engines like PubMed, Google Scholar, and JSTOR, demonstrating effective search strategies and the use of keywords to locate pertinent literature. Dr. Tripathi discussed various organizational frameworks, including thematic, chronological, and methodological approaches. He emphasized the importance of a logical structure in enhancing the readability and coherence of the literature review. 3. Interactive Session Dr. Tripathi guided attendees through various search strategies using databases like PubMed and Google Scholar. Participants practiced formulating effective search queries, refining their search results, and selecting relevant literature. Additionally, they engaged in note-taking exercises, learning to annotate key points and organize their notes systematically. The Q&A sessions were highly interactive, providing a platform for participants to clarify their doubts and seek personalized feedback. Dr. Tripathi's approachability and thorough responses helped demystify complex aspects of literature review writing. These sessions also fostered a sense of community among attendees, as they shared their challenges and solutions. Overall, the interactive sessions were instrumental in translating theoretical knowledge into practical skills. They not only reinforced the workshop's content but also boosted participants' confidence in their ability to conduct comprehensive literature reviews. By incorporating these activities, Dr. Tripathi ensured that the workshop was not just a lecture but a dynamic and engaging learning experience that would leave a lasting impact on the participants. 9. Vote of Thanks The event came to an end with Ms. Cicily Martin (Research Scholar from SOL) giving the vote of thanks for the event. She thanked Rev. Dr. Fr Peter Varghese Muttungal, Campus Administrator, CHRIST (Deemed To Be University),Delhi-NCR and Dr. Riya Baby, Ph.D Coordinator, CHRIST (Deemed To Be University), Delhi-NCR for being the pillar of strength behind the centre in all its endeavours. She further thanked the speaker Dr. Vikesh Ram Tripathi for taking out time and addressing the scholars on a very pertinent topic of literature review. She thanked Dr. Vikalp and other faculty members for their constant support. She thanked the faculty and the scholars for being active participants. In the end, she thanked all those who worked behind the scenes from the IT department for helping out in conducting the programme smoothly and successfully.

Key Takeaway	The event was organized by the Centre for Research Delhi NCR to enlighten the scholars on the significance and importance of literature review and how to choose the right method and technique of literature review aligning with the scope and objective of research. The programme was conducted for Ph.D students of the Delhi NCR Campus.

Summary of the Activity	The event started with welcoming and introducing the Guest Speaker by Dr Vikal Srivastava. This was followed by the address by Dr Vikesh Tripathi. The workshop on "Effective Strategies and Techniques for Crafting a Comprehensive Literature Review" by Dr. Vikesh Ram Tripathi was highly interactive and enriched participants' understanding through practical application. Group discussions enabled attendees to collaborate and critically evaluate selected research articles, fostering diverse perspectives and a deeper comprehension of the literature review process. Hands-on exercises guided participants through practical search strategies using databases like PubMed and Google Scholar, helping them develop skills in formulating effective queries and selecting relevant literature. Dr. Tripathi also demonstrated techniques for critical reading and systematic note-taking, emphasizing their importance in establishing a strong foundation for a literature review. Interactive Q&A sessions allowed participants to clarify their doubts and receive personalized feedback, fostering a sense of community and mutual learning. These interactive activities effectively translated theoretical knowledge into practical skills, significantly boosting participants' confidence in their ability to conduct comprehensive literature reviews. The event came to an end with Ms. Cicily Martin (Research Scholar from SOL), giving the vote of thanks for the event.

Impact Assessment

The workshop on "Effective Strategies and Techniques for Crafting a Comprehensive Literature Review" by Dr. Vikesh Ram Tripathi had a profound impact on the participants, significantly enhancing their understanding and approach to literature review writing. Attendees, including academicians, research scholars, and students, benefited greatly from Dr. Tripathi's expert guidance and practical insights. The workshop's structure, combining theoretical knowledge with interactive sessions, ensured that participants could apply the concepts discussed in real-time. Group discussions and hands-on exercises facilitated collaborative learning and practical application, allowing participants to refine their skills in critical reading, note-taking, and organizing literature. The Q&A sessions provided personalized feedback and addressed individual queries, fostering a deeper understanding and a sense of community among attendees. Overall, the workshop not only improved participants' confidence in conducting comprehensive literature reviews but also inspired them to approach their research with a more analytical and structured mindset. The impact of this workshop was evident in the participants' feedback, which highlighted their enhanced skills, improved understanding, and renewed enthusiasm for academic research. Dr. Tripathi's ability to demystify complex concepts and provide actionable strategies ensured that the workshop was a valuable and transformative experience for all attendees. The successful execution of this workshop underscores the importance of such informative and pragmatic sessions in empowering scholars to excel in their academic endeavors and contribute meaningfully to the academic community.
