SDG Alignment

Goal Number	16. Peace, justice and strong institutions
Description	As part of Anti-Ragging Week, CCHS, in collaboration with the Peer Education System at Christ University, organized an awareness event aimed at promoting a safe, respectful and inclusive campus environment. The event featured a series of engaging activities, including a flash mob and poem recitation, which conveyed powerful messages against ragging and encouraged students to foster a culture of mutual respect and support. A significant part of the programme was the oath-taking ceremony, conducted by Ms. Smitha Keeran, Coordinator of the Anti-Ragging Squad. The oath reaffirmed the students commitment to standing against ragging and contributing to a positive campus community. The event was honoured by the presence of Col.Jai Govind, Chairperson of the Anti-Ragging Squad, who attended as the Chief Guest. His presence added significance to the programme and reinforced the institution's commitment to maintaining a ragging-free campus. Overall, the event successfully combined creative activities with an important social message, encouraging students to actively participate in creating a safe and welcoming environment for everyone.
Impact	The programme enhanced awareness among students about the importance of maintaining a safe, respectful and inclusive campus. The engaging activities and oath-taking ceremony encouraged students to stand against ragging, support one another and contribute to a positive and welcoming campus environment. It reinforced a collective commitment towards building a safe and ragging-free campus.
