Contours of the Legal Profession: A Look into Prospective Opportunities in the International Domain

2 September 2023

Venue: Sky View, Central Block, Christ (Deemed to be University) Central Campus
No. of Participants: 252

The School of Law, CHRIST (Deemed to be University), organized a Workshop on Employability titled “Contours of the Legal Profession: A Look into Prospective Opportunities in the International Domain” on 2nd September 2023 at Sky View, Central Block. The session was led by Mr. Arunav Kaul, a Human Rights Lawyer with the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), and attended by 252 students. The workshop provided an in-depth overview of career prospects in international and humanitarian law, offering students a comprehensive roadmap for pursuing global opportunities. Mr. Kaul discussed the process of securing international internships, the relevance of postgraduate education, and the professional skills required to excel in the international legal arena. The session encouraged students to explore diverse avenues in the legal field, emphasizing global engagement and professional preparedness. The committee also proposed conducting future sessions to help students choose suitable master’s programs and foster greater alumni involvement in international law domains.

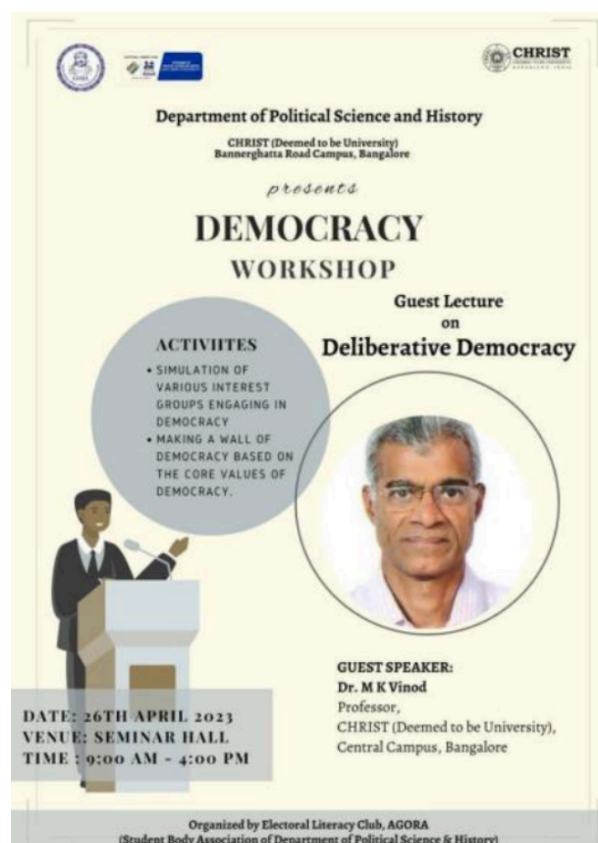

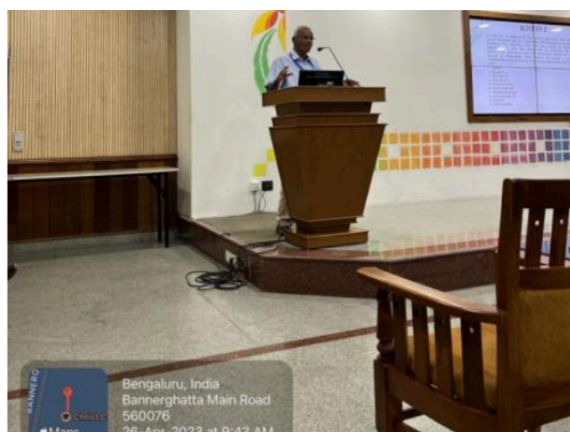

The Guest Lecture on Deliberative Democracy 26 April 2023

Venue: Seminar Hall, Bannerghatta Road Campus

No. of Participants: 25

The Guest Lecture on Deliberative Democracy, held on 26th April 2023 as part of the Democracy Workshop, provided an engaging platform to explore the philosophical and practical dimensions of democratic governance. The session began with an address by Dr. Chaitanya, who emphasized the inherent presence of conflict in democratic societies and explained democracy as a means rather than an end. He elaborated on how differing opinions and ideologies shape democratic processes. Dr. Venkatanarayan S delivered the welcome address, highlighting the importance of dissent in politics and how it strengthens democratic values. Dr. M.J. Vinod further discussed the varying experiences of democracies worldwide, emphasizing the role of deliberation in decision-making. Students actively participated by creating handmade posters illustrating democratic values, showcasing their creativity and understanding. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Anapcha Babu, marking the workshop as an insightful exploration of dialogue, dissent, and decision-making in democracy.

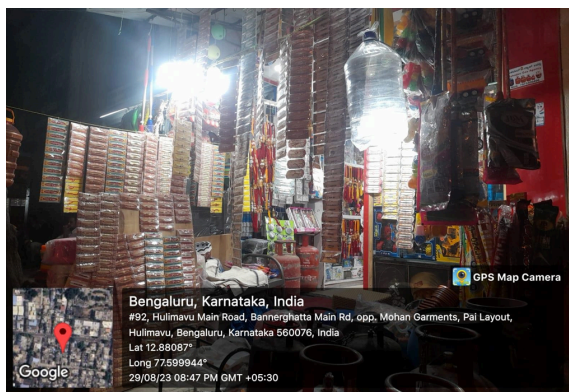

Social Interaction through SDG Goals 10 and 17 23-31 August 2023

Venue: CHRIST (Deemed to be University), Bannerghatta Road Campus

No. of Participants: 12

The Department of English and Cultural Studies at CHRIST (Deemed to be University), Bannerghatta Road Campus, conducted an Outreach Program titled “Social Interaction through SDG Goals 10 and 17” from August 23 to August 31, 2023, in Bengaluru. The activity aimed to help students understand the inequalities faced by people in different occupations while promoting collaboration and partnership. As part of the program, 12 students interacted with local vendors and community members to learn about the socio-economic challenges they encounter in their daily lives. Through these meaningful conversations, students gained awareness of the pervasive nature of inequality and reflected on the importance of empathy and inclusivity. Working in pairs during the activity also fostered teamwork, communication, and problem-solving skills. The initiative successfully aligned with SDG 10 (Reduced Inequalities) and SDG 17 (Partnerships for the Goals) by encouraging social responsibility and community engagement among students.

Economic Analysis of Environmental Impact Assessment 9 February 2023

Venue: Room No. 505, Central Block, CHRIST (Deemed to be University), Central Campus.
No. of Participants: 40

The Environmental Law Orientation Session titled “Economic Analysis of Environmental Impact Assessment” was conducted on 9th February 2023 at Room No. 505, Central Block, CHRIST (Deemed to be University), Central Campus. The session provided an insightful overview of the Economic Analysis of Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) and addressed pressing climate change issues. It emphasized the interconnection between economics and environmental sustainability, highlighting how economic activities impact the climate and ecosystem. Participants gained a foundational understanding of how Cost-Benefit Analysis (CBA) helps assess the financial implications of environmental decisions while ensuring sustainable and equitable growth. The discussion also explored market failures and the trade-offs involved in environmental policy-making, underscoring the importance of integrating economic rationale with ecological responsibility. The event aimed to enhance awareness of how policymakers, industries, and communities can make informed decisions that promote both economic prosperity and environmental well-being. A follow-up plan was proposed to organize more such interactive sessions to deepen understanding and awareness of key environmental and economic issues.

The Environmental Law Mini Moot 20 October 2023

Venue: Classrooms of 3rd Year BA & BBA LLB, Central Block, CHRIST (Deemed to be University), Central Campus.

No. of Participants: 350

The Environmental Law Mini Moot was conducted on 20th October 2023 in the classrooms of 3rd Year BA & BBA LLB, Central Block, CHRIST (Deemed to be University), Bangalore. The event aimed to bridge the gap between theoretical learning and practical legal application by engaging students in discussions on Indian environmental policies and legislations. Participants took part in simulated court proceedings involving environmental law cases, allowing them to develop skills in legal drafting, argumentation, and advocacy. The activity promoted community engagement and awareness regarding environmental protection while encouraging digitization through the use of electronic materials. Each team—petitioners and respondents—was allotted 22 minutes for submissions and rebuttals, followed by a 30-minute deliberation by the judges. The event successfully enhanced students' understanding of environmental regulations in India and their implications for biodiversity conservation. A follow-up plan was proposed to organize similar events promoting legal awareness and active participation in environmental governance.

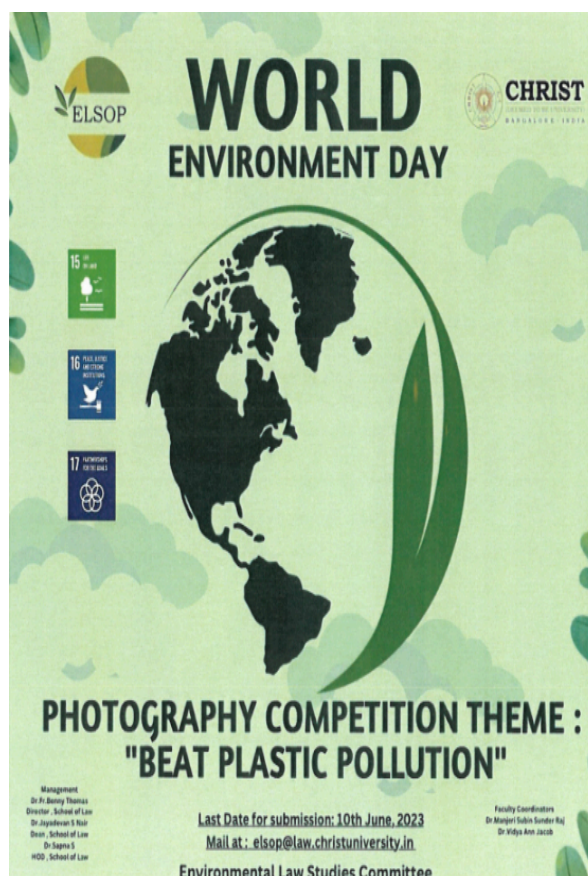

The World Environment Day Photography Competition 5 June 2023

Venue: Online, A Block, CHRIST (Deemed to be University)

No. of Participants: 17

The World Environment Day Photography Competition, held on June 5, 2023, was organized by the Environmental Law Studies and Orientation Programme of CHRIST (Deemed to be University) in an online format. The competition aimed to raise awareness about plastic pollution and promote environmental consciousness among students. Announced on May 15 and open for submissions until June 10, the event received over 17 high-quality entries from students across various disciplines. The photographs creatively captured the adverse impacts of plastic waste on the environment, showcasing the participants' passion and concern for sustainability. The initiative successfully encouraged students to express environmental issues through visual storytelling and to reflect on sustainable living practices. Four winning photographs were later featured on social media on 3rd August 2023, further amplifying the message of environmental responsibility and the need to combat plastic pollution.

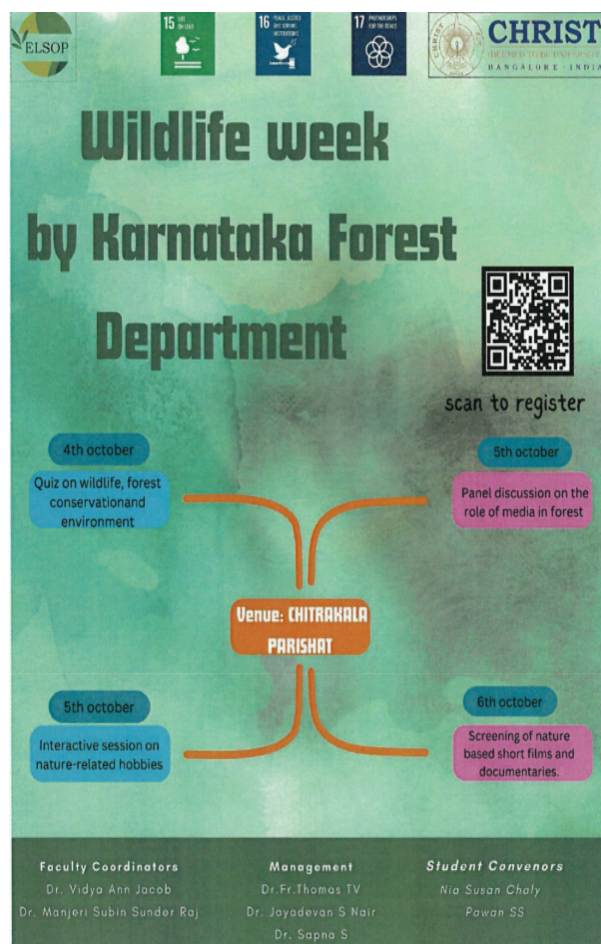

The Wildlife Week Workshop 4- 7 October 2023

Venue: Chitrakala Parishat

No. of Participants: 14

The Wildlife Week Workshop, held from 4th to 7th October 2023 at Chitrakala Parishat, focused on wildlife conservation and environmental protection through engaging discussions and awareness initiatives. The event highlighted the crucial role of the media in spreading awareness about wildlife issues and promoting responsible behavior towards animals. It showcased the Karnataka Forest Department's success in tiger conservation, serving as an inspiring example for other regions. Experts emphasized the need for truthful media reporting, youth participation, and community engagement to strengthen conservation efforts. The panel discussions underscored the importance of responsible human-wildlife interaction and the collective role of citizens in safeguarding biodiversity. Overall, the workshop provided valuable insights into conservation strategies and inspired participants to become proactive stewards of the environment.
